POETRY.

A SNAKE IN THE GRASS.

BY JOHN G. SAXE.

Come, listen awhile to me, my lad,
Come, listen to me a spell!
Let th t terrible drum
For a moment be dumb,
For your uncle is going to tell
What befell
A youth who loved liquor well.

A clever young man was he, lad,
And with beauty uncommonly blessed.
Ere with brandy and wine
He began to decline,
And behaved like a person possessed,
I protest
The temperance plan is the best.

e evening he went to the tavern, my lad,
went to the tavern one night!
And drinking too much
Rum, brandy and such,
The chap got exceedingly "tight,"
And was quite
What your aunt would entitle a "fright."

The fellow fell into a snooze, my lad,
'Tis a horrible slumber he takes—
He trembles with fear,
And acts very queer;
My eyes! how he shivers and shakes!

'Tis a warning to you and to me, my lad,
A particular caution to all—
Though no one can see
The viper but he—
To hear the poor lunatic howl,
"How they crawl
All over the floor and the wall!"

The next morning he took to his bed, my lad,
Next morning he took to his bed,
And he never got up
To dine or to sup,
hough properly physicked and bled;
And I read,
Next day, the poor fellow was dead.

You have heard of the snake in the grass, my lad,
Of the viper concealed in the grass;
But now you must know
Man's deadliest foe
Is a snake of a different class!
Alas,
'Tis the viper that lurks in the grass.

CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION.

[An answer from the Convention—from the husband to his wife at home.]

Wifey, dear wifey! I cannot come home
For the Bills that are laid on the shelf,
Affairs of the State forbid me to roam,
And the farm, you must see to yourself;
I scarcely remember the promise, you say,
I made 'fore election last spring,
I think it is filed with the rest that I made
To the voters—and every such thing.

Wifey, dear wifey, your touching appeal
I have laid on the table to-day,
I can not consider it fully as yet,
For majority votes it a nay.
The calf you may keep if it has a black face,
For suffrage is about to be passed;
And ask Deacon Skinner to tend to the lambs
And present me the bill at the last.

The hens that were setting a fortnight or so,
And the turkey that's stolen her nest,
Are very small items, compared to the ones
That nightly deprive me of rest,
For, Betsey, I'm setting a hen (so to speak)
That we never shall borrow or beg,
And my presence is needed to watch her awhile,
For she'll lay me a huge golden egg.

You can pull up the weeds in the garden or yard,
While I the assembly address;
And while you have time you can make me some shirts
And send them direct by express.
There's a by-law requires that members appear
As neat as occasion may be;
(I guess she would send them a heap if she knew,
Of the bright eyes that beam upon me!

Wifey, dear wifey, I'll cease to accept,
The cards for a dinner or club,
My heart is sad to be parted from you,
'Twill be over soon (Ay, there's the rub!)
I'd send for you here, but the weather is hot,
And I fear you would soon pine away,
So sleep in the bedroom alone—that's a dear—
And I—(will be festive and gay.)

The New Constitution.

We publish in this issue the first official copy of the new constitution that has appeared in the press, which is submitted to the people for ratification by the convention that, after a session of fourteen weeks, has finished its work and adjourned. Except in the extension of the the franchise the instrument is not marked by any radical deviation from the one by which we are now governed. Its preamble expresses gratitude to Almighty God, the Sovereign Ruler of nations for civil and religious liberty and acknowledges a dependence upon Him for a continuation thereof.

In the body of the constitution, we shall point out the special new features, and touch upon the general scope of of each article. The first defines the boundaries and the capital of the State. The "bill of rights" constitutes the second article, which is composed of provisions from the legislative, judicial, and miscellaneous articles of the present constitution. The sections relating to personal, civil and religious liberty, freedom of speach, of the press, and the trial by jury, have been condensed and rearranged in a more terse and compact form, and on account of their clasification and expression are decided improvements.

In the article upon elective franchise, the word "white" is stricken out of the qualifying clauses, the franchise is forbidden to idiots and insane people, and permission for the arrest of electors while attending election is extended to those who have committed any "misdemeanor." In all subsequent wars and rebellions, the right to vote is to be enjoyed by those in the military or naval service of the United States.

In the Legislative Department the number of senators is increased to 33, by electing, after 1870, two senators from the present thirty-second district. The senatorial terms are increased to four years, half of them expiring every two years alternately. The number of Representatives is increased to the maximum of 110. Every county, or two or more counties, having 4,000 inhabitants is entitled to a representative. A decential census of the State is provided for, alternating with the United State census every fifth year, the first one will be taken in 1875. Senators and Representatives are, during the turn for which they are elected, made ineligible to any office, created, or whose emoluments have been increased, by the legislature of that term. All interest in public contracts made during such term is forbidden to the members of the legislature. The ineligibility of persons holding public offices, national, State, or county is enlarged. The compensation of members is increased to four dollars a day, and instead of being restricted to a remuneration for twenty days only in ex tra session, they are forbidden to legislaie on all subjects that are not expressly mentioned by the Governor's proclamation or message. Fifteen dollars is allowed for postage, stationery, newspapers, etc, which is ten dollars more than is permitted now. The President of the Senate and Speaker of the House are entitled to six dollars a day. Indeed, the whole scale of salaries and perquisites is pitched on so economical a basis, that the Convention has not exposed itself to criticism on that score. The members of the Board of Auditors are forbidden in interest in any contract with the State. The Legislature can empower cities and townships to aid the construction of railroads to the amount of ten per. cent of the assessed valuation of the city's or township's property, including all similar aid extended previously. Such a tax must be approved by a majority of the electors. No county can be so empowered, except those of the Upper Peninsula, and they under the condition imposed on cities and townships. The prohibition of money for religious sects is extended to schools under denominational control.

The only essential change in the Executive Department enlarges the elegibility for the governorship, by reducing the age from thirty to twenty-five years.

In the Judicial Department, the number of judges on the bench of the Supreme Court is increased from four to five, to serve ten years instead of eight, a term expiring every two years. The judge having the shortest time is appointed chief justice. The State is devided into five judicial districts, four of which are in the Lower Peninsula, and in which four terms at least must be annually held. There are some minor changes relative to the powers and jurisdiction of the courts. The five judicial districts are each divided into two circuits. The number of circuit judges is increased from eight to ten, their terms from six years to eight They are ordered to meet every two years to ordain or modify uniform rules of practice in their courts. The legislature may provide a term or terms in the circuit courts for a judge of the Supreme Court. A new and, we believe, an original feature in the proposed constitution confers civil and criminal jurisdiction upon one or more courts of probate.

In the article on impeachment and removals, an officer impeached, even if acquitted is made liable to trial and punishment according to law; and an impeachment may be tried either before or after the adjournment of the Legislature. No officer judicial or any other, shall hold his office after an impeachment is directed, until he is acquitted. This clearly avoids any dispute to which the text of the Constitution of the United States on this subject gives rise. Under a provision of this nature, Mr. Johnson would be suspended from his office as soon as the impeachment was ordered. An officer whom the Governor, two-thirds of each House concurring, may remove for "reasonable cause," which is not an impeachable offense, has a right to be heard in his own defense. The Governor has the power to convene the Legislature during its recess for the purpose of impeaching any officer; the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House may jointly convene it for the impeachment of the Governor.

The Governor's salary is increased from $1,000 to 3,000; that of the Secretary of State, Commissioner of Land Office, and Attorney General from $800 to $2,000; State Treasurer and Superintendent of Public Institution are required to attend to their duties personally.

In the article on Fiances, the specific exemption of mining taxes from being applied to the educational fund is stricken out. Every law hereafter creating a debt must provide for a sinking fund to pay the same. A Board of Equalization consisting of one member from each sentorial district is to be provided by the Legislature until 1873, after which it is to be constituted as the Legislature orders. The first equalization of assessments is to be made in 1871 and every fifth year hereafter.

The ship canal Sault Ste. Marie is excepted from the clause forbidding the State to be interested in any public improvement.

The first section of the article of Education deserves to be inscribed upon the banner of this State, and of all others in letters of Gold. A great principle is thus grandly expressed: "Religion, morality, and knowledge being necessary to good government and the happiness of mankind, schools and the means of education shall forever be encouraged." The excellent provisions for common schools, for our University, the Normal School, public libraries, and the institutions for the deaf and blind and insane, are retained with a number of improvements. The minimum of tuition in each school district is increased from three to four months. The time of election of the Regents of the University is changed from that of the supreme court judges to that of the township election. A member of the Board of Education is to be elected at the same time. That peculiar principle of social compensation is preserved, for which Michigan is distinguished and by which the vicious, depraved, and ignorant are compelled to some sort of restitution in providing antidotes to their wickedness in the public libraries to which their fines are devoted. The Legislature may authorize any township by the vote of its electors to apply this money to the direct support of the primary schools. The conspicious position which this State holds as a friend and propagator of intelligence is happily maintained in the new constitution.

No new county can be organized in oppositian to a majority of the resident electors; and no new county shall be made up of one or more others unless it shall contain less than sixteen towns. This does not apply to counties which may be composed wholly of islands. Supervisors are restricted to a tax of one mill and a half instead of to $1,000, as now, for the repair of highways and bridges.

Township elections are changed from the first Monday in April to the first Tuesday in March.

In the article on corporations, the enlargement of franchises granted by charters is made to require a two-thirds vote of each House; the redemption of bills from State banks is permitted in "lawful money of the United States," instead of specie; and the stockholders of all corporations are made individually liable for all labor performed while they hold stock.

In exemptions of seizure, the amount in the homestead, dwelling-house and appurtenances is raised from fifteen to twenty-five hundred dollars; and the benefits are extended to those owning houses on lands which do not belong to them. The homestead of a widow or deserted wife is exempted from the payment of the debts of the husband, so long as the widow has no other homestead, and during the minority of her children, or while the deserted wife shall occupy said homestead. The Legislature is required to prohibit public officers having public moneys in charge, from using them for private purposes, and the interest thereupon must be paid to the fund to which the money belongs. The right to allow the bridging and daming of streams is taken from the supervisors and conferred upon the Legislature, Amendments to the constitution may be voted on by the people at such times as the Legislature may authorize instead of a general election. The question of annual or biennial sessions, and of the enactment of a prohibitory clause is submitted to the people.—Detroit Post

Who is Protected?

The tariff on peas and beans is ten per cent. On oats it is ten cnts a bushel. On agricultural seeds the duty is thirty per cent. Now if a farmer finds himself without seed in the spring, and purchase a few bushels of grain in Canada for sowing, he must pay thirty per cent, while the speculator who imports a cargo for sale pays only ten per cents per bushel on his oats or corn, and ten per cent, on peas and beans.

Lest the government should be defrauded by designing farmers along the frontier, who might sow their peas after paying only ten per cent. duty on them. special instructions were issued to the custom officers last spring to admit at that rate only such peas as had been kiln-dried, or prepared for use in such a way as to make them worthless for seed. Every other pea to pay thirty per cent.

Who is protected by such a law? It is plain enough to see who is oppressed. The poor man, whose scanty supply of grain is exhausted by the long, cold winter, and who buys a few bushels from his Canadian neighbor for seed must pay to the government, for the privilege of bringing it over the invisible wall, twenty per cent. more than those favorites the speculator and the "heavy importer" are called on to pay on the same article.

The President now employs all his executive enginery to compel Mr. Stanton to vacate the War Office. Immediately after the close of the war, Mr. Stanton sent in his regisnation to President Lincoln, who refused to accept it. Mr. Carpenter tells the facts as follows:

A few days before President Lincoln's death Secretary Stanton tendered his resignation of the War Department. He accompanied the act with a heartfelt tribute to Mr. Lincoln's constant friendship and faithful devotion to his country, saying also, that he, as Secretary, had accepted the position to hold it only till the war should end, and that now he felt that his work was done, and his duty was to resign. Mr. Lincoln was greatly moved by the Secretary's words, and tearing to pieces the paper containing the resignation and throwing his arms about the Secretary, he said; "Stanton, you have been a good friend and a faithful public servant, and it is not for you to say when you will no longer be needed here." Several friends of both parties were present, and there was not a dry eye that witnessed the scene."

Generals Rousseau and Steedman became celebrated through the war for their gallantry to the reble woman whom they encountered. A handsome young widow at Florence, Alabama, requested Gen. Croxton to place a guard over house and cited the previous compliance on the part of Generals Rousseau and Steedman with such a request and excellent precedent for Gen. Croxton. "They are very dear freinds of mine," she urged; "they are my right and left bowers." "Ah madame," replied Croxton, "I find that every pretty woman in Alabama holds that same hand."

That "hand" seems to have been transferred to Mr. Johnson, and whenever a favor is to be done for the rebels, he plays out one or both of those "knaves." If the Freedmen's Bureau is to be interfered with, or Gen. Sheridan to be thwarted, or the Republican party broken up, out they come. But both they and he will doubtless find that they are "played out" in another sense, by the time some of his little games are finished.—Post.

A Woman's View of the Catacombs.

A lady of New York writes in a private letter from Paris;

"It is a great thing in Paris to be able to visit the Catacombs, for the great danger of visitors being lost in these dark caverns of the earth has made the city ordinances concerning them very strict. They are now open for the first time since I have been here. Of course I applied, and my name has been before the committe eight days. Yesterday (July 13) I was admitted and had a new sensation.

"There was six in our party, but one out play through nervour fear, and to tell you the truth I kept tremendously close to the guides. There are several entrances, but we went in near the principal one near the old Barrier d'Enfer—which, liberally translated, is the 'Barrier of Hell.' Each person carries his own candle and the candles are sold at the gate—the brimstone match thrown in!

"About one-tenth part of Paris, mostly on the bank of the Seine, is undetermined by these Catacombs, of quarries, out of which the city building stone was taken before the seventeenth century. You descend, I should think, a hundred feet, down into the earth before you come to an intricate labyrinth, where are three millions—only think of it! three times the population of New York city—of skulls and accompanying thigh-bones, walled up along the avenues. Chapels, alters and Roman crosses are built of them with intervening upright slabs bearing inscriptions, many from Lamartine. The ground has all been surveyed above. Guides are stationed at very close invervals, so that we constantly changed for a new one; and the sergens de ville are also down there, for you could not have a better place for a murder—there are so many caverns to the right and left. Visitors are prevented from entering these caverns by chains drawn across, so that if one lost his guide, the chains would keep him from getting out of the beaten track—and possibly he could be found.

"The excavations are so low in most places that I could reach the top by standing on tip-toe. They are very damp and the water drips down upon you, so that we found extra clothing and shawls very comfortable. One or two accidents have occurred from the falling in of houses suddenly. One building sank down eighty feet. These disasters led to the closing of the Catacombs for many years; but the present government took them in hand, and built props and buttresses, and the exploration is now safe.

"As we emerged into daylight, the poor stood begging for the stumps of our candles; which stumps having been disposed of, those of us that had husbands and friends in New York went home to write letters telling them all about it!"

This is the way to mend torn greenbacks and currency. Smooth out the edges carefully, and moisten the edges with the finger tip after wetting on the tongue. Then lay the bill on a piece of writing paper, carefully drawing the edges together, and lay another piece of writing paper over it. A few seconds rubbing with the finger over the seam will make it adhere, and a little adroitness, when it is dry, will enable you to lift the bill from the paper without tearing it. The seam will then be invisible and the strongest part of the bill.

Hail to the fair, the poet and the sage—
The young, the old, and those of middle age,
And list a theme where muses never tire,
And in each breast a loyal zeal inspire.
Let one and all neglect their good no more,
But buy their Drugs at Dr. Cox's Store:
As pure as ether in the Summer sky,
His medicine and drugs you need but try!
No compounds vile, are found upon his shelf,
For Dr. Cox prepares them all himself.
Here, fresh and fragrant as the Summer flowers,
Are perfumes rare, distilled from foreign bowers.
Soft, odorous creams to beautify the skin,
Rich, tempting cordials to imbibe within;
And creamy soaps, so delicate and pure—
To use them will a satin gloss insure.
Rich powders and pomades, unknown before,
Till Cox produced them at his rival store;
And tinctures, extracts, oils and preparations,
The choicest made, from Foreign importations
All these in great variety you'll find,
While prices suit the most fastidious mind.
In teas and coffees, such a stock is rare—
Too choice and tempting to be found elsewhere
While Groceries of every kind are found
Cheaper and better than the town around.
His wines and liquors, choice and very old,
Need but a trial, and their virtue's told;
And fancy goods, of every kind and use,
That man invents, or art can introduce,
Are here in quantities that cannot fail
To satisfy the crowd, and cause their sale.
To those who come attention will be paid,
By Dr. Cox, who thus solicits trade.
And prompt to duty, always will be there
To counsel and advise, and drugs prepare,
With smiling face, dispensing good to all,

THE AMERICAN
COOKING STOVE!
After twenty years experience in the manufacture of stoves, we became convinced, some six years since, that a vast amount of money was being expended by the people of this country, in buying cheap and almost worthless stoves, a large portion of which was wasted; and that true economy consisted in buying the best stoves that could be made, notwithstanding the price was higher. With this view we proceeded to construct the American Cooking Stove, and spared no pains or expense to make it the best and most perfect stove that could be made. And we have experimented with it, and carefully watched its operation for the last six years, and when an improvement suggested itself, we have at once adopted it, and we have several of these improvements secured by letters patent. In this manner, we do not hesitate to say, we have brought it to a higher state of perfection than has heretofore been attained in cooking stoves. The recent improvements in this stove has added largely to its convenience and effectiveness. In all the varieties of stoves we manufacture, we study usefulness, durability, convenience and economy in operation, rather than cheapness in price, and in so doing we are satisfied we study the interest of those purchasing our stoves.

The Ypsilanti Commercial

PUBLISHED WEEKLY, BY

C. R. PATTISON.

SATURDAY, AUG. 31, 1867.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY.

"Brains, Truth and Good Judgment."

Ypsilanti, Aug. 17th 1867.

C. R. Pattison, Editor.

Did it ever occur to you, that brains, truth and good judgment, are needful, to run a newspaper having so formidable a motto, as, "Free to do right, to do wrong never?" And would you consider it as putting too "fine a point" on it, if I should assure you, that in your last weeks critique of Judge Ninde's record, you displayed a sad want of all three.

No judgment; or you would not rush in a leader, on a newspaper paragraph—of the Tribune's. No brains; or you would not uselessly seek to injure a leading Republican, whom your party will always need in the city and county, when they desire a few no-party democratic votes (of which I am sorry to say there are too many.) No truth; for the paragraph was a lie, and your remarks upon it, "followed in the footsteps of their illustrious predecessor."

It was well known to every man of intelligence in the county, who took the trouble to ask, that Judge N was no radical, was in favor of a licence law and a seperate submission of negro suffrage—the only two questions having the slightest political importance likely to arise in the Constitutional Convention.

A separate submission of the African was asked in Convention three times. First by Mr. Lothrop, when it received 27 votes. Almost half of these were republicans. Second, by Mr. Crocker, receiving 15 votes, I think, two Republican votes, and third, by your humble servant, when it received 19 votes, and always Judge Ninde's. On the last vote among the six Republicans was no less a republican light than Hon Marsh Giddings of Kalamazoo.

On the final passage of the article, "Elective Franchise," Judge N. took the African entire. (With what stomach I leave him to say when he gets home,) though two other Republicans did not, (Messrs Lamb and Burtch.)

Of course I should not have mixed in your "family jars," had it not been for your insinuation, that the Judge "played second fiddle" to my first. I believe in justice and truth even toward a political opponent, and as I never asked him to vote one way or the other, during the whole three months session, so I never knew, until it fell from his lips, how he would vote upon any question.

As he always voted first it would be more appropos to reverse the "fiddle" business.

I believe I did express some surprise, at his vote against allowing women, to come up to the polls, yet I could explain that, because I knew, that from his few years experience as Judge of Probate, he had grown afraid of the women etc,—old enough to vote.

As to the rest, it certainly is not very remarkable, that after more than eleven years of intimate daily personal and professional intercourse, without one unpleasant word, we had learned to entertain a mutual respect for, and to assimilate with each others views upon abstract questions of Constitutional Law and the true theory of Representative Government.

In the love of truth and fair dealing.

Yours,

Lyman D. Norris.

COMMENTS.

We lay no peculiar claims to "brains," and are happy to submit to our readers an article brim full of this essential commodity.

It may seem an unequal contest, but using the modicum of "brains" which the great creator has in his wisdom seen fit to bestow, we enter the lists against this modern Goliath.

We have no wish to injure Judge Ninde. A newspaper article will not do it, unless he has injured himself by his own acts. Personally we have always and do now entertain the kindest feelings toward the Judge. Our grievances with him are only as a politician. We claim that his vote is not in accord with the men that nominated and elected him. You acknowledge that the Suffrage question is the only political one, which divided the parties in the Convention. The Convention itself was the offspring of the Republican party. The Democratic party opposed it in its inception, at the polls and in the election of delegates sought to obtain a majority for the ostensible purpose of overthrowing manhood suffrage. The Republican party boldly made the issue.

When asked if we would support the nomination of Judge Ninde, we said, no. Such had been his equivocal position during the war in reference to emancipation policy and since in reference to reconstruction measures that we were afraid of him on the suffrage question. We were afterwards assured by this same person, who questioned him or professed to do so, that the Judge was sound on this issue and hence we accorded him a cheerful support. After the election, judge our surprise in reading the following from the Sentinel. We quote from the issue of April 10th.

"The election in this county has resulted in the success of the Democratic ticket with the single exception of T. Ninde esq., who distanced one of his Democratic competitors by assiduous personal efforts in his own ward. This he could never have done had it not been known that he is not a "radical." In all respects he is eminently conservative. His convictions are averse to the extension of suffrage, though he will favor an amendment to the Constitution striking out the word "white," to be submitted to the people in a separate article."

The above extract incited us to pen the following. We quote from COMMERCIAL, May 18th.

"In the Convention the great central question will be the expunging the word "white" from the Constitution. We trust no Republican member of this Convention will be found recreant to his trust. It will not do sneakingly to present this question by itself, separate from the main document, as though we were cowardly, or as if so just and righteous a measure would pollute our Constitution. No Republican can vote far so dastardly an evasion and satisfy his constitutents. With dignity,—as men who feel that they are performing a grand act of justice, incorporate equal rights before the law, manhood suffrage in the new Constitution, and the Republican masses will rally and adopt it by 20,000. We cannot afford to repeat the mistake of Connecicutt. We cannot afford to give the ex-rebels of the South so great a weapon whereby to defeat us and the cause of human liberty. Policy and justice here shake hands.

No Republican delegate need expect to return home and receive the endorsement of his constituents who sells out to the Democracy by submitting the expunging the word "white" as a separate article to the people."

Judge Ninde did this very thing. And if he has in his votes on this issue forfeited the confidence of his constituents it is not our fault.

We acknowledge that we have not "brains" enough to support or endorse conservatism in the Republican party. A conservative Republican is a hybrid, repulsive to every right thinking man. Grandly says senator Chandler.

"The highway of Conservative Republicanism is as clearly marked with grave-stones as the highway to California is marked with the carcasses and bones of dead mules. The people have not yet done erecting tombstones."

"Whom your party will always need in this city and county when they desire a few Democratic no-party votes, (of which I am sorry to say there are too many.")

We consider this paragraph an insult to the Republican party and even to Judge Ninde himself. If the Republican party is reduced so low that it must continue to nominate doubtful men—men not strictly and conscientiously Republicans as with shame we confess, in the case of Johnson, then let it sink. And if Judge Ninde is willing to be a catch penny for both parties, he alone must bear it. But this no, doubt unintentional insult, comes with poor grace from one who owes his election to Republican votes.

We renew our exhortation Aug. 17th.

"We must learn always, everywhere, first, last, and all the time—come success or defeat—to nominate true men, men who are Republicans on principle, and cannot be seduced from their allegiance. It has been a party failing to take men on trust."

In answer to the charge of lacking "judgment and truth" we give our readers a letter from Mr. Backus the Convention reporter of the Tribune.

Detroit, Aug. 27 1867.

Mr. Pattison—Dear Sir.

I have looked up the original records and find matters to be as follows. The question of the seperate submission of manhood Suffrage came up the first time on Mr. Lothrop's motion immediately after the insertion of prohibition in the Constitutution. This fact caused quite a number of Republicans to vote in favor of seperate submission of negro Suffrage to keep it clear of those other side issues and nearly all of them said that this action would not bind them when the subject should come up again.

The question came up, second, on Mr. Cocker's substitute Aug. 12th in favor of which the official Journal shows 16 votes, 14 Democrats and Messrs Ninde and Alexander, Republicans. My private record, however shows but 15 affirmative votes. Mr. Alexander's name being put down as not having voted. I think the official copy is a mistake, or else he must have had his name recorded after the regular roll call. This was the only time the question came up by itself, and it was to this vote the extract you took from my letter referred. You will of course be obliged to abide by the official record.

The 3d time the question came up was on Mr. Norri's motion and was then mixed up with prohibition and annual or biennial sessions. It received 5 Republican votes. The only time it was presented by itself was the second and that was the only fair test vote. I have written to Mr. Alexander about the matter.

Yours in haste,

C. R. Backus.

CURRENT EVENTS.

Things are mixed. Grant makes an earnest protest against Sherridan's removal, and then yields as submissively as a whipped spaniel. Protesting and then going and doing it is not the thing that takes with the American people. A little more pluck, Capt. Grant.

"I am pleased to avail myself of this invitation to urge earnestly, in the name of the patriotic people who have sacrificed hundreds of thousands of lives and thousands of millions of treasure to preserve the integrity of the Union of the country that this order be not insisted on. It is unmistakably the expressed wish of the country that Gen. Sheridan should not be removed from his present command. * * * Gen. Sheridan has performed his civil duties faithfully and intelligently."

It seems that there is a private letter that is said to indicate a bold spirit on the part of Grant; but he keeps on tamely executing the President's edicts.

Gen. Sickles is removed and Canby takes his place. Hancock takes Sheridan's. Conservative Congres men sold us out to the President after all, and reconstruction is at his mercy. All is at sea. Our indignation is too great to say anything further.

Dr. Strickland's MELLIFLUOUS COUGH BALSAM.

This valuable preparation is compounded of Honey and Herbs and is without question the most effectual remedy for Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Influenza, Catarrh, and all diseases of the Throat and Lungs are immediately relieved by its use. It is truly wonderful. The most obstinate cases of Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Asthma, Croup, Influenza, Catarrh, and all diseases of the Throat and Lungs are immediately relieved by it. Twenty always produces a copious expectoration, and does it in less time than any other remedy known—frequently when all other remedies have failed—who has had over twenty years practice, England and the United States, and, therefore, is intimately acquainted with the nature of the cases which require to be cured. The best proof of this is the fact that one bottle a month is the present sales. Price 50 cents per bottle, 3 bottles for $1. Sold by all druggists.

ONE DOSE RELIEVES. ONE BOTTLE CURES

A Remedy FOR THE PILES.

DR. STRICKLAND'S Pile Remedy is without doubt, which only preparation known, many will cure obstinate cases of Piles. The Doctor has in his possession hundreds of letters to prove this assertion, many of them very extraordinary cases, one of which is Mr. Glass and his brother, at Jamesville, who having suffered for many years with the Piles, both cured with one bottle. Another is that of Mr. Beebe, of Kalamazoo, which, by one bottle, was entirely cured. These are but few out of many that could be given. Those suffering from the Piles should not try any other Remedy. Dr. Strickland's Pile Remedy is a positive cure, and there need be no doubt about it. These are the only preparations ever offered to the suffering, and will be sent by Druggists to any part of the country who will send for it. Price $1 per bottle. Sold by all Druggists.

Prof. Ripley.

It is with sincere regret that we announce the resignation of Prof. Ripley and wife.—They have been connected with the Normal a number of years. Prof. Ripley has been active and very useful in all that concerns the educational and literary advancement of our city. They have accepted positions in the Missouri University. Mrs. R. is to have charge of the Model School connected with the Normal College of the University.—Prof. Ripley graduated at Yale College; also from the Law Department of the College in 1850. Mrs. Ripley is a graduate of Oberlin College, Ohio. They will carry with them the good wishes of our citizens to their new field of labor.

Returned.

Rev. Mr. Hewitt, after an absence of several weeks in Connecticut has returned, reinvigorated, and will occupy his pulpit next Sabbath.

Big Thing.

The Methodist Church, re-dedicated last Sunday, was signalized by a noble and successful effort of raising the means to meet the repairs. The pastor, Rev. Mr. Smart, preached an appropriate discourse, and at the close, and while receiving the required amount, displayed a masterly spirit, those reserved powers for which he is celebrated. About $3,000 was raised, and about $900 more for the new organ. The Church is fitted up in fine style, not only the main audiance room, but the lecture, infant class and class rooms. To-morrow is quarterly meeting.

Fire.

The Machine Shop, connected with Mr P. Ferrier's Foundry was consumed by fire last Wednesday evening. The origin of the fire is uncertain. We saw it about 8 o'clock; the flames bursting from the east end. The walls are standing, though in a damaged state. The insurance on the whole property is $7,000. The loss to Mr. F., in retarding his business &c., will be large. A good argument for the insurance companies. Messrs. Norris & Uhl are the insurers. The lower portion of the building might have been saved if the hose had not burst. It has become a matter of necessity to provide more efficient remedies against fire.

This result has only been attained by intense study, long experience, persevering experiments, and large pecuniary expenditures; but the successful result is a remunerating reward for all their patient efforts, and they now offer instruments that cannot be rivalled in excellence.—Boston Post.

Confessedly the Greatest Medical Discovery of the age is Dr. J. W. Poland's White Pine Compound. Nothing acts so soothingly, or effects so rapid a cure; so say the thousands who have been saved from serious illness by its timely use. Sold by Druggists.

JUST AS REPRESENTED.—"We find upon trial," says Joseph R. Orwig, in a letter dated Nov. 13, 1865, "that your machine, (Willcox & Gibbs,) is just what it is represented by its many friends; and we would not now do without it for twice its cost."

A Good Education.

In this age of improvement and progressive knowledge, every man or woman who expects to do anything or be anybody in the world, should have a useful, practical education.

Nowhere are better facilities offered for this purpose than in the beautiful city of Ann Arbor, which, from its superior educational advantages, is justly termed the Athens of the Great West. Prominent among these is the ANN ARBOR BUSINESS COLLEGE, and TELEGRAPHIC INSTITUTE.

The thorough, practical culture here imported, and the spirit of wide-awake enterprise which it rouses, stamps the student as a thorough-going, progressive, useful member of society, in whatever work of life he may be called to act.

A Base Ball Pic-nic was held on the afternoon of the 23d, at Russell's Corners, under the auspices of the Superior Base Ball Club of that place. We did not see that it differed from an ordinary pic-nic, except that there was a profusion of base ball, and a lamentable absence of everything in the shape of edibles.

The first game was between the Second Nine of the Superior Club, of Ypsilanti, and resulted in the victory of the latter by a score of 37 to 23. The second match was between the First Nine of the same clubs, and was also won by the Ypsilanti boys by a score of 25 to 21. A dance was to take place in the evening; but whether it was a success I cannot say, as I was obliged to "come home" before it opened, "because of the fast I kept."

Star Club of Ypsilanti, and Star Club of Wayne, played a match last Saturday; our boys beat, the score standing 15 to 50.

Farmers.

We begin in this week the publication of an important paper in the agricultural column 4th page—a report read before the legislature in reference to the preservation of forest trees. Every citizen should read it.

TO TRAVELERS.—Pleasure seekers this year should bear in mind that there is a great deal of sickness being caused by a change of water and climate. Before leaving home provide a bottle of Coe's Dyspepsia Cure, it is an excellent antidote, (prevention is always better than cur .)

DOMESTIC ECONOMY.—No house-keeper or cook is fully prepared to enter successfully upon her culinary duties without the Best Chemical Saleratus on hand. It relieves the mind of much of the care and anxiety experienced by a skillful cook. For sale by most merchants and grocers. Call for the genuine in red papers. It is better than Soda.

PROOFS OF THE SUPERIOR QUALITY OF THE

AMERICAN WATCH

MADE AT WALTHAM, MASS.

The American Watch Company, of Waltham, Mass., respectfully submit that their Watches are cheaper, more accurate, less complex, more durable, better adapted for general use, and more easily kept in order and repaired than any other watches in the market. They are simpler in structure, and therefore stronger, and less likely to be injured than the majority of foreign watches, which are composed of from 125 to 300 pieces while in an old English watch there are more than 700 parts. How they run under the hardest trial watches can have, is shown by the following letter:

PENN RAILROAD COMPANY.

OFFICE OF THE GENERAL SUPERINTENDENT
ALTOONA, PA., 15 Dec., 1866.

Gentlemen: The watches manufactured by you have been in use on this railroad for several years by our engineemen, to whom we furnish watches as part of our equipment. There are now some three hundred of them carried on our line, and we consider them good and reliable time-keepers. Indeed, I have great satisfaction in saying your watches give us less trouble, and have worn and do wear much long without repairs than any watches we have ever had in use on this road. As you are aware we formerly trusted to those of English manufacture, of acknowledged good reputation; but as a class they never keep time as correctly nor good service, as yours.

In these statements I am sustained by my predecessors Mr. Lewis, whose experience extended over series of years.

Respectfully,
EDWARD A. WILLIAMS.
General Superintendent.

American Watch Co., Waltham.

We make now five different grades of watches named respectively as follows:

Appleton, Tracy & Co.,	Waltham, Mass.
Waltham Watch Company,	Waltham Mass.
P. S. Bartlett,	Waltham, Mass.
Wm. Ellery.	Boston Mass.
Home Watch Company,	Boston Mass.

All of these with the exception of the Home Watch Company, are warrented by the American Watch Company to be of the best material on the most approved principle, and to possess every requisite for a reliable timekeeper. Every dealer selling those Watches provided with the Company's printed card of guarantee, which should accompany each Watch sold so that buyers may feel sure that they are purchasing the genuine article. There are numerous counterfeits and imitations of our watches sold throughout the country, and we would caution purchasers to be on their guard against imposition.

Any grades of Waltham Watches may be purchased of Watch Dealers throughout the country.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of disease.

SO WIDE IS THE FIELD OF ITS USEfulness and so numerous are its cures, that in almost every section of country are persons publicly known, who have been restored by it from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs. When once tried its superiority over every other expectorant is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmunary organs incident to our climate. While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.

We can assure the public, that its quality is carefully kept up to the best ever has been, and that it may be replied on to do for their relief all that it has ever done.

Great numbers of Clergymen, Physicians, Statesmen, and other eminent personages, have lent their names to cerify the unpalleled usefulness of our remedies, but space here will not permit the insertion of them. The Agents below named furnish gratis our American Almanac in which are given; with full descriptions of the complaints our remedies cure.

Those who require an alterative medicine to purify the blood will find Ayer's Comp. Ext. Sarsaparilla the one to use. Try it once, and you will concede its value.

Prepared by DR. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowel Mass., and sold by all Druggists and dealers in medicine everywhere. Agents wanted. DR. COX, Agent, Ypsilanti. 180

DR. SCHENCK'S

PULMONIC SYRUP.

This great medicine cured Dr. J. H. SCHENCK, the Proprietor, of Pulmonary Consumption, when it had assumed its most formidable aspect, and when speedy death appeared to be inevitable. His physicians pronounced his case incurable when he commenced the use of this simple but powerful remedy. His health was restored in a very short time, and no return of the disease has been apprehended, for all the symptoms quickly disappeared, and his present weight is more than two hundred pounds.

Since his recovery, he has devoted his attention exclusively to the cure of Consumption and the diseases which are usually complicated with it, and the cures effected by his medicine have been very numerous and truly wonderful. Dr. SCHENCK makes professional visits to several of the larger cities weekly, where he has a large concourse of patients, and it is truly astonishing to see poor consumptives that have to be lifted out of their carriages, and in a few months healthy, robust persons. Dr. SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP, SEAWEED TONIC, and MANDRAKE PILLS are generally all required in curing Consumption. Full directions accompany each, so that any one can take them without seeing Dr. SCHENCK, but when it is convenient it is best to see him. He gives advice free, but for a thorough examination with his Respirometer his fee is three dollars.

Please observe, when purchasing, that the two likenesses of the Doctor—one when in the last stage of Consumption, and the other as he now is, in perfect health—are on the Government stamp.

Sold by all Druggists and Dealers. Price $1.50 per bottle, or $7.50 the half dozen. Letters for advice should always be directed to Dr. Schenck's Principal Office, 15 North 6th St. Philadelphia, Pa.

THE UNION

PACIFIC RAIL ROAD COMPANY,

THEIR

FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS

AS AN INVESTMENT.

The rapid progress of the Union Pacific Railroad, now building west from Omaha, Nebraska, and forming, with its western connections, an unbroken line across the continent, attracts attention to the value of the First Mortgage Bonds which the company now offer to the public. The first question asked by prudent investors is, "Are these bonds secure?" Next, "Are they a profitable investment?" To reply in brief:

1st. The early completion of the whole great line of the Pacific is as certain as any future business event can be. The Government grant of over twenty million acres of land and fifty million dollars in its own bonds practically guarantees it. One-fourth of the work is already done, and the track continues to be laid at the rate of two miles a day.

2d. The Union Pacific Railroad bonds are issued upon what promises to be made one of the most profitable lines of railroad in the country. For many years it must be the only line connecting the Atlantic and Pacific; and being without competition, it can maintain remunerative rates.

3d. 425 miles of the road are finished, and fully equipped with depots, locomotives, cars., and two trains are daily running each way. The materials for the remaining 92 miles to the eastern base of the Rocky Mountains are on hand, and it is under contract to be done in September.

4th. The net earnings of the section already finished are several times greater than the gold interest upon the First Mortgage Bonds upon such sections, and if not another mile of the road were built, the part already completed would not only pay interest and expenses, but be profitable to the company.

5th. The Union Pacific Railroad Bonds can be issued only as the road progresses, and therefore can never be in the market unless they represent a bond fide property.

6th. Their amount is strictly limited by law to a sum equal to what is granted by the U. S. Government, and for which it takes a second lien as security. This amount upon the first 517 miles west form Omaha is only $16,000 per mile.

7th. The fact that the U. S. Government considers a second lien upon the road a good investment, and that some of the shrewdest railroad builders of the country have already paid five million dollars upon the stock (which is to them a third lien), may well inspire confidence in a first lien.

8th. Although it is not claimed that there can be any better securities than Government, there are parties who consider a first mortgage upon such a property as this the very best security in the world, and who sell their Governments to re-invest in these bonds—thus securing a greater interest.

9th. As the Union Pacific Railroad bonds are offered for the present at 90 cents on the the dollar and accrued interest, they are the cheapest security in the market, being more than 15 per cent. less than U. S. Stocks.

10th. At the current rate of premium on gold, they pay

Over Nine per Cent. Interest.

DR. J. W. POLAND'S

HUMOR DOCTOR.

A Positive Remedy for all kinds of Humors,

PARTICULARLY

Erysipelas, Nettle-Rash, Salt Rheum, Scrofula, Carbuncles, Boils, and Piles.

It is very easy to say of this, or of any other medicine, "It is the very best remedy known." It is not always so easy to prove it. It is, however, exceedingly gratifying to the Proprietor of this medicine, that, while he declares to the public that this is a most wonderful and effective specific for Humors, as stated above, he has abundant proof at hand to sustain his statement.

For sixteen years the HUMOR DOCTOR has been manufactured and sold, and every year has increased the value of its reputation, and the amount of its sales. In New Hampshire, where it originated, no remedy for Humors is so highly prized. An eminent physician (now an army surgeon) when practising in New Hampshire, purchased between fifty and sixty gallons of it, during some seven or eight years, and used it in his practice. He has since then ordered it for the hospital where he was stationed. Other physicians have purchased it, and have used it in practice with great success. When the Proprietor lived in New Hampshire, at Goffstown Centre, for the space of thirty or forty miles around, and in Manchester particularly, the HUMOR DOCTOR was well known and highly valued for the numerous and wonderful cures which it effected. Though manufactured in large quantities the supply was frequently exhausted, and purchasers had to wait for more to be made. In that region some very severe cases of Erysipelas were treated with it—and they were cured! Erysipelas sores, or carbuncles, those ugly, painful ulcers, were entirely removed wherever this medicine was faithfully used. So it was with Scrofula and Salt Rheum. The HUMOR DOCTOR cured them.

For the sake of showing what is thought of it, a few testimonials are here inserted:

Milton Gale, Esq., Boston.

I hereby certify that I was sorely afflicted with Boils for two years, developing themselves upon my limbs and other parts of my body. The sufferings which I endured from them are indescribable. Suffice it to say that I faithfully tried several of the most popular humor remedies, but without removing the affliction. At length, by the earnest request of an intimate friend, I was induced to try Dr. J. W. Poland's Humor Doctor, and am very happy to attest that all my boils were removed, and my health was restored by using Dr. Poland's of-resaid medicine.

BOSTON, Jan. 14, 1856. MILTON GALE.

Mrs. Wheeler, Stoneham, Mass.

I very confidently and earnestly recommend Dr. J. W. Poland's Humor Doctor as an excellent remedy for Humors, having been wonderfully benefited by it myself. My own case was a very severe and obstinate one. For more than two years the skin upon the inside of both my hands, and even down on the wrist, was constantly cracked and broken up, so that I was unable to use my hands in any kind of wet work, and was obliged to wear gloves in sewing to avoid getting blood upon my work. The humor which so afflicted me was probably a combination of Erysipelas and Salt Rheum. My general health was quite poor. Soon after I began to use the Humor Doctor I could perceive signs of healing. I continued to take the medicine till I was fully cured. My hands are now perfectly free from humors, and to all appearances my whole system is clear of it, and has been for several months. I used eight bottles before I felt so free to give it up entirely, but they cured me.

HARRIET WHEELER.

STONEHAM, Mass., July 5, 1856.

Mrs. Porter, Dover, N. H.

DOVER, N. H., July 22, 1855.

DR. POLAND: I received your letter inquiring as to the effects of your medicine on seasickness. I am happy to say that I think it is "the medicine" for that dreadful sickness. I tried various prescriptions, but found none that settled the stomach and cleared the head like the Humor Doctor. I felt as though I could hardly wait to get ashore, to entreat you to introduce it into ship chandlery stores, that it may find its way to those who suffer upon the mighty deep from sea-sickness. If captains who take their families with them, or carry passengers, should try it for once, they would never be willing to voyage without it.

Yours, HARRIET M. PORTER.

Much more might be stated in relation to this medicine, as contained in testimonials, but it is needless. Ask Manchester druggists about it, especially E. W. Blake, at Barr's. Inquire of Mr. Henry Plumer, of Bedford, whose wife was cured by it of Salt Rheum. Ask almost any person in Goffstown, and they will declare its value as a remedy, as used in their own cases or by their friends.

HALL'S

Vegetable Sicilian Hair Renewer

Has stood the test of seven years trial by the public; and no preparation for the hair yet discovered will produce the same beneficial results. It is a new scientific discovery, combining the most powerful and restorative agents in the VEGETABLE KINGDOM. It restores GRAY HAIR TO ITS ORIGINAL YOUTHFUL COLOR. It makes the scalp white and clean; cures dandruff and humors, and falling out of the hair; and will make it grow upon bald heads, except in very aged persons, as it furnishes the nutritive principle by which the hair is nourished and supported. It makes the hair moist, soft, and glossy, and is unsurpassed as a HAIR DRESSING. It is the cheapest preparation ever offered to the public, as one bottle will accomplish more and last longer than three bottles of any other preparation.

It is recommended and used by the First Medical Authority.

The wonderful results produced by our Sicilian Hair Renewer have induced many to manufacture preparations for the Hair, under various names; and in order to induce the trade and the public to purchase their compounds, they have resorted to falsehoods, by claiming they were former partners, or had some connection with our Mr. Hall, and their preparation was similar to ours. Do not be deceived by them! Purchase the original: it has never been equalled. Our Treatise on the Hair, with certificates, sent free by mail. See that each bottle has our private Revenue Stamp over the top of the bottle. All others are imitations.

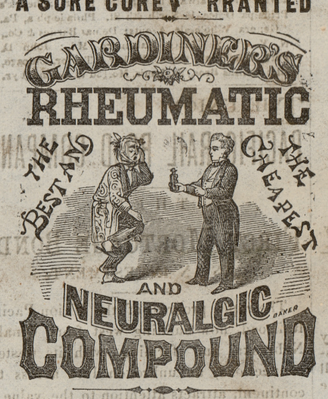
A SURE CURE! WARRANTED



A WORD TO THE PUBLIC.

As the forms or the disease for which this Compound is recommended, are various, so are the symptoms which attend them. Have patience with the sufferer, and serve the origin of the disease, be it what it may, whether in the blood, let the sufferer remember that no remedy can reach the seat of the disease, except through the blood. This Compound, and this alone, cannot reach it. Remember this. The Compound is the only remedy ever discovered that will afford him permanent relief, because it goes into the blood, THE CHANNEL OF THE DISEASE, and drives it from its stronghold, and the victim is relieved.

☞ This should never be forgotten.

USE GARDINER'S

Chicago, Nov. 15, 1866.

Mr. H. R. Gardiner, Proprietor of Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgic Compound.

Sir—Having been afflicted with the Neuralgia in my face for six months, a friend induced me to try your Compound, and I can cheerfully say I found it the only relief. I recommend it to all who are troubled with the Neuralgia.

Yours respectfully, A. BOOTH,
Oyster Dealer, cor. Madison and Dearborn Sts.

RHEUMATIC AND NEURALGIC

Chicago, Aug. 29, 1866.

Dr. Gardiner, Proprietor of Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgic Compound:

Dear Sir—It is with great pleasure that I testify to the merits of your invaluable medicine. Having been afflicted with rheumatism for more than a year, causing me great annoyance and suffering, after trying almost every remedy that could be obtained, a friend induced me to try your Compound, and I earnestly endorse to the world in the highest terms, and earnestly recommend it to all who are suffering from Neuralgia or Rheumatism. Firm of Merrill & Hopkins, 99 Lake St.

W. S. HOPKINS.

COMPOUND.

This wonderful Medicine—entirely vegetable in its character—has never failed in effecting a permanent cure in a single instance. Wherever it has been introduced it has met with the most marked success. It has probably relieved more human suffering than any other one long to become the only medicine, and the only Scientific and Neuralgic Remedy recognized throughout the civilized world as a specific on the Globe.

DR. CHAUSSIER'S EMPRESS.

Imposition Imperatrice, pour les Ceveux

Free From Poisonous or Injurious Minerals. Drugs.

It is warranted to restore GRAY or Faded Hair to its original color. For an Elegant Dressing, richly perfumed, it is unsurpassed It relieves the scalp of dandruff and all irritation, and stops the hair falling off. It does not gum the hair, stain the skin, nor soil the finest fabric, and is free from the dis agreeable odor of sulphur.

See what the Great Tragedienne says:

"Messieurs:—In Dr. Chaussier's Empress I recognize an old friend, having used it as a cosmetique and toilet article for several years. The bottle is not the same style we have in Paris, but upon the use of the preparation I find it to be the same as that put up in France. It is the BEST ARTICLE FOR THE HAIR I have ever found, and I am glad to know it is becoming so popular in America.

Jumping Horses The Way We Cure Ours.

Our horse cubby had no proper realization of the distinction between meum tuem:

He would clear the tallest fense like a deer. We proposed to fetter him. Went to Yost's harness-shop paid a $1 for a fetter. Put it on Saturaday night and every night there after until the next Saturady night week, when some boys we suppose, or some body full of the milk of human kindness took the fetter off and it disappeared we found to our surprise that cubby had got the better of his tricks; paying proper respects to boundary lines. He has not offered to jump from that day to this now over six weeks. He is in a lot where some portions are only four rails high. Try it on your jumping colts.

Editor.

Catarrh.—Catching cold, says Dr. Thomas Inman, is common phrase for an attack of catarrh. but is a very incorrect one. One vear I suffered so severely from a series of "colds" that my attention was especially drawn to them. I was then lecturer on medicine, and nearly ever night from five o'clock to six during the winter months had to turn out from a warm room to go through all weathers, lecture for an hour in a theatre heated by a stove and lighted by gas, and then return again to my snug home. When I felt a fresh cold beginning, I tried in vain to account for it, until I accidentally saw in Copland's dictionary that the most fertile cause of a cold was coming from a moist, cold air to a hot and dry room. This at once explained to me the reason of my frequent suffering, for I had invarably gone into my hot room straight from the cold. I of course soon changed me habit; I dwadled in the hall while taking off my great coat, perambulated the rooms which had no fire in, went up and down stairs and the like, ere I went into my study, whose temperature was also reduced. Since then I agree with a friend who says "that a cold comes from catching hot;" and I am disposed to think that there is a strong analogy between a chilblain on child's toes and a cold in a person's nose, throat and lungs.—Medical Mirror.

Remedy For the Currant Worm.

A few days since I found my currant and gooseberry bushes very fully covered with the current worm, which has been destructive for the past three years. Having a mixture already prepared for top-dressing corn, of one-third each of plaster, wood ash, less slaked lime, I covered my bushes with it by shaking over and under them from my hand, and in on day's time every worm had fallen off upon the ground, dead or dying. I have examined my bushes again to-day, and find but one worm on them. A pinch of the mixture dropped directly upon him caused death very soon.

The worms, as I found them, were three-quarters of an inch grown, and had eaten the leaves clean off from many of the branches of the bushes If this should prove as effectual with others as with me, I do no see why we may not again have currants as plenty as before the appearance of this worm.—Country Gentleman.

REPORT of Special Committee, to whom was referred the memorial of T. T. Lyon and Sanford Howard, relative to the preservation of forest trees.

To the Honorable, the Legislature of the State of Michigan:

Your memorialists would respectfully represent, that, owing to the original abudance of the timber growth of our State, and the obstacle, it consequently presented to the occupation of the soil for agricultural and other purposes, together with a very general failure to appreciate its modifying influence upon our climate, a most reckless improvident and as your memorialists believe, injourious warfare, has from the earlist settlement of our State, been waged against our forests, opening to the free sweeps of wind, in many cases, extensive streches of country, and thereby injouriously affecting still broader regions, by subjecting them, from such course to more sudden and extreme changes of temperature, and at the same time incresing the liability to frost and drought by not only dimihisning the the amount of rainfall, but also by accelerating evaporation from the surface, accompained as it must ever be, by a corresponding rapid diminution of temperature.

The momentary importance of this subject may be appreciated if we consider that within the last five years the damage to the wheat crop of our State alone from lack of shelter can hardly be less than a million of dollars; while the loss of fruit trees and their products, within that period, from the same cause must at least be an equal sum.

Believing as you memorialists do, that this process is still going on, and that its continuance must involve still more extensive and injurious effects upon the climatology of our State, we may be allowed to invoke your careful consideration of the subject for the purpose of devising if possible, a remedy. And, as a means of securing so desirable a result, we may be allowed to suggest the importance of a general diffsion of information on the subject, the encouragement by legislation for the preservation of spare timber in belts along the exposed sides of our farms, and the planting of trees as windbreaks where lands been already opened; and to facilitate this last process, the modification of our highway laws,

The Best and Cheapest Horse and Cattle Medicine in the World!

Used throughout the United States and Canadas during the last 23 years.

For the cure of the various Diseases to which Horses and Cattle are subject; such as, Founder, Distemper, Hide Bound, Loss of Appetite, Inward Strains, Yellow Water, Fistula, Poll Evil, Scratches or Grease, Mange, Inflammation of the Eyes, and Fatigue from Hard Labor; also, Rheumatism, (commonly called Stiff complaint), which proves fatal to so many valuable horses in this country.

SLOAN'S CONDITION POWDER

Has the largest sale of any Horse and Cattle Medicine in this country. It is composed of herbs and roots, and for mildness, safety, certainty and thoroughness, stands pre-eminently at the head of the list of Horse and Cattle Medicines.

It carries off all gross humors, prevents horses from becoming stiff or foundering, purifies the blood, loosens the skin, and gives it a smooth and glossy appearance cleanses the water and strengthens every part of the body. It is also a safe and certain remedy for coughs and colds, which generate so many fatal diseases.

The Cow requires to be supplied with an abundance of food—not to make her fat—this is not desirable, but to keep up a regular secretion of milk, and all owners of cows will find by giving them twice a week, a large increase in quantity and quality of milk and cream. It carries off all fever and impurities of the blood. The effect is seen throughout the season by a rich and abundant flow of milk.

The farmer is beginning to be aware of the valuable properties of Sloan's Condition Powder, in promoting the condition of his sheep and preventing many of the diseases of all the domesticated animals.

☞ A fifty cent package of Sloan's Condition Powder put into a barrel of swill is better than a bushel of corn to fatten a hog, and is a certain preventive of Hog Cholera, Blind Staggers, and other diseases common among hogs.

CAUTION.—To protect ourselves and the public from being imposed upon by worthless imitations, the genuine will bear the fac simile signature of the proprietors on the wrapper.
